Important Notice for Voters on Election Day
March 19, 2024 Republican Presidential Preference Primary

The 2024 Republican Presidential Primary will take place on Tuesday, March 19, 2024 from 7:00 am to 7:00 pm. On Election Day, voters must vote at their assigned precinct location based on their residential address.

Although certain candidates may have suspended their campaigns, in accordance with Section 102.101(3), F.S. the candidate nominee's name must remain on the Presidential Preference Primary (PPP) ballot for his or her respective party if a candidate did not submit a formal withdrawal before December 12, 2023. A vote cast for any candidate nominee appearing on the ballot will count as a vote for that candidate.

Gertrude Walker, St. Lucie County Supervisor of Elections stated, "Please note that certain polling locations have changed, and the applicable voters have been noticed. St. Lucie County voters can find their precinct location by visiting www.slcelections.com or by calling St. Lucie County Supervisor of Elections office at (772) 462-1500." To vote in the primary, voters must have a valid photo and signature ID, such as but not limited to; a driver's license, Florida Identification Card, a passport, or a military ID. The complete list of approved identification for voting can be found at www.slcelections.com.

The St. Lucie County Supervisor of Elections office is committed to ensuring a fair, secure, and accessible election for all voters. For more information about the election, please visit www.slcelections.com or call (772) 462-1500.
